

Landford

To be sold by auction under a Distress for Rent, on Thursday the 9th day of January, 1783, the whole stock of Farmer John Young, consisting of six horses, with their harness; ten cows and a bull; eight four-year-old heifers; five of three years old; seven of two years old; and three yearlings; two fat pigs, and 18 store pigs; two waggons, two carts, three plows, three harrows and a drag; winnowing tackle, sacks, &c. &c. upwards of 20 tones of good hay; and a considerable quantity of wheat, barley, and oats, unthrashed. The auction to begin at ten o'clock.

Salisbury & Winchester Journal January 6th 1783