

Entertainment

Longbridge Deverill

1855

Thursday evening, the 27th inst., the Choral Society of this place gave a concert of secular music, assisted by the Longbridge Deverill brass band. Mr J P Dyer, organist, Warminster, presided at the piano-forte in his usual able style. The whole proceedings reflected great credit on the performers.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal 29 December 1855