

Ludgershall Borough Windfall

Sir Stanford Graham, in the division on the Reform Bill, on Tuesday night, without claiming any merit whatever, or even uttering a single word, gave a vote which tended to deprive himself of £35,000, the sum which, it is said, he gave for the borough of Ludgershall.

Hampshire Chronicle & Southampton Courier, 28 March 1831