

Ludgershall Roll of Honour
THE GREAT WAR 1914-1918

 Driver William Leonard Taylor	 Church of St James, Ludgershall	WILLIAM LEONARD TAYLOR of Bridgeton, Glasgow, Lanarkshire
--	--	---

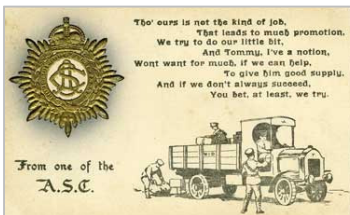

Date of birth	1888	Baptised
Birth registered			2
Birthplace	Bridgeton, Glasgow		2

Father's occupation	Edwin Taylor b.1851 England. Occupation - Lithographer (1901 Census Scotland)	3
Mother	Catherine b.1851 Canada	3
Siblings	Elizabeth b.1877, Catherine b.1882, Edwin b.1883, George H b.1885, Thomas b.1886, Rosannah b.1890	3
	Maria S b.1893, Joseph b.1895 (all born Bridgeton Glasgow)	3

Residence 1901	6 Millerfald Road, Bridgeton, Lanarkshire. Occupation - Grocer's assistant	3
Residence 1911

Wife	Agnes
Children	2 sons
Widow's re-marriage	Mr Grieve. Agnes Grieve living at 42 Young Street East, Glasgow

Rank	Driver	1
Regiment	156 th H.T. Company 19 th Division, Army Service Corps	1
Enlisted	Glasgow	1
Service Number	T2/017567	1
Medals		4
Date of Death and Age	3 March 1915 age 27	1
Cause	Lobar Pneumonia	1
Burial / Memorial	St James Ludgershall. CWGC Ref M8	1

NOTES	 The' ours is not the kind of job, That leads to much promotion. We try to do our little bit, And Tommy, I've a notion, Wont want for much, if we can help, To give him good supply, And if we don't always succeed, You bet, at least, we try. From one of the A.S.C. Died at Military Hospital, South Tidworth; Private in the Army Service Corps stationed at Ludgershall. Address on death certificate 76 Springfield Road, Bridgeton, Glasgow Occupation: Van Man Commemorated on War Memorial: None found
--------------	---

Researched by Patricia Brice 2014