

Waterloo Friendly Society Meeting 1827

On Monday last, being Waterloo day, the Waterloo Friendly Society held their 8th annual meeting at the Crown Inn, Ludgershall. The morning was ushered in by the ringing of bells and other demonstrations of joy. The members attended divine service and heard a most appropriate discourse, delivered by the Rev. A. B. Hutchins, from the 18th chapter of Proverbs, 24th verse.

The members afterwards partook of a very excellent dinner served by Mr. Lansley. After dinner the members paraded the streets with their banners and an excellent band of music and the day was spent with friendship, mirth and loyalty.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal, 25 June 1827