

MARRIED AT SUTTON BENGER

Mr. I. R. Brooks and Miss Margaret Brown

The wedding took place on Wednesday at the Parish Church, Sutton Benger, of Ivor Reginald, son of Mr. F. J. H. Brooks, of The Triangle, Malmesbury and Margaret Annie, daughter of Mr. D. S. Brown, of Startley and of the late Mrs. Brown. The ceremony was conducted by the Rector (the Rev. F. A. Newbury).

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a dress of blue cloque, with coat to tone and a silver fox fur and carried a bouquet of cream carnations. She was attended by her step-sister (Miss Edna Radhedge) and Miss Betty Brooks (the bridegroom's sister). They wore pink dresses, with coats to tone and carried bouquets of pink carnations. They also wore bracelets, the gifts of the bridegroom.

Mr. Alfred Gibson was best man.

A reception was held at the Vintage Hotel and later Mr. and Mrs. Brooks left for Bristol for the honeymoon, the bride travelling in a dress of mustard colour, with a fawn camel coat and brown accessories.

Her gift to the bridegroom was a signet ring and the bridegroom gave her a silver fox fur.

The numerous presents included a chiming clock from the bridegroom's workmates in the Relay shop at the Westinghouse Works, Chippenham.
