

Patents and Their Inventors

A patent is an official document given to an inventor by a government. This document generally gives inventors the right to stop anyone else from copying, using, distributing or selling the invention without their permission.

Year	Date	Surname	Given Names	Abode	Occupation	Description of Invention and Notes
1844	30-Apr	Cambridge	William Colborne	Market Lavington	Agricultural implement maker	Clod-crusher, thrashing machinery, and horse-power. Cambridge received a medal for his clod-crusher at the Exhibition of 1862. The jurors state in their report that all the manufacturers adopted his principle of construction on the expiration of the patent.
