

Wiltshire Horse-drawn bus, c. 1900

Bus Overturns in Pond

On Boxing Day evening Mr. and Mrs. Bucknall, of Marlborough were returning home with their family in a 'bus from Bedwyn, where they had been visiting friends, when the driver, mistaking the way, drove into the pond at Chisbury. In trying to regain the road one of the horses fell, overturning the 'bus and immersing the occupants in the water. Luckily, beyond a cold bath and a late arrival home, no damage was done.

Salisbury Times, 13 January 1905