

1908 Melksham Local News.

FIRE AT MELKSHAM

An alarming outbreak of fire occurred on Friday at Melksham. Four practically new houses situated in Beanacre Road and belonging to Lord Methuen, were completely destroyed. The local fire brigade did everything possible to save the buildings and were instrumental in clearing out the contents of the houses, which were all nearly saved. A fired chimney was the origin of the outbreak. The property is insured.

The Bath Chronicle, Thursday, April 23, 1908