

Wilts Policeman Found Shot

Albert William Newman, a war reserve constable, of Crescent Road, Melksham, was found shot dead early yesterday at Norrington Common, near Melksham. The discovery was made by a Home Guard who heard a shot soon after he had left Newman.

Newman had told him that he was going to make a cup of tea and he found the constable on the ground near a water tap with his revolver and a kettle close by.

Newman was married with a family.
