CALL TO LOCAL MEN

Volunteers Urgently Needed for Fire Service

Owing to calls for military service the Melksham Urban District Auxiliary Fire Service will be sadly depleted in the coming weeks, and an urgent appeal is made for volunteers to fill the vacant places which will occur. It is in the interest of men who are able to take up this work, for it may prove of great advantage to their own families if air raids should come to this part of the country.

Mr. C. J. Barrington, Clerk to the Urban Council, told our reporter that the appeal was being made now so that the volunteers could be well advanced in training when the time came for them to step into the breach.

Full details are given in an advertisement in this issue. Applicants should communicate with Chief Officer or Secretary of the Melksham Fire Brigade at the general Fire Station in the Market Place, Melksham, on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday evenings between the hours of 7.30 p.m. and 9 p.m.
