

Melksham Wedding

Mr. Francis Day and Miss Gladys Earle

A pretty wedding took place on Saturday at the Broughton Road Baptist Church, Melksham, between Miss Gladys G. Earle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Earle, of Lowbourne, and Mr. Francis B. Day, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Day, of Victoria Terrace, Melksham. The Rev. Harry Davies, of Bristol, officiated.

The bride, who was given away by her father, was charmingly attired in a gown of ivory crepe de chine and lace, tulle veil with wreath of orange blossom, and carried a bouquet of cream roses. She had in attendance as bridesmaid her cousin, Miss Lilian Morgan, of Bath, who wore a frock of powder blue georgette with black crinoline hat and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. The duties of best man were carried out by Mr. J. Murphy, of Manchester, a friend of the bridegroom.

As the guests assembled the organist (Mr. Percy Smith-Keen) played nuptial music, and following the ceremony a reception was held at the bride's home, after which the happy couple left for Torquay and Paris for their honeymoon. The bride travelled in a fawn tweed coat with fur and felt hat, shoes and stockings to match.

Both the bride and bridegroom, who are well known in Melksham, were the recipients of many valuable and useful presents.
