

The Angel Inn Mere after Closure in 1969

MERE, WILTS

TO be LET, and may be entered upon immediately, all that free

Message or Public House,

Called The Angel, in the town of Mere, with spacious Brewhouse, Cellars, Stables, and all other necessary
offices attached, all in good and tenantable repair
together with a productive GARDEN and a COTTAGE adjoining. And a PADDOCK of excellent PASTURE LAND, of about one Acre contiguous thereto.

The Premises were for many years occupied by the late Mr JAMES DOWDING, and are now tenanted by his Widow.

The House is well accustomed, and commands the largest Sale of Beer in the town of Mere.

For a view of the premises, and for terms and other particulars,
to Mr JOHN PHILLIPS, Charnage, near Mere.

Dated 8th February, 1841.
