

CORONERS INQUESTS

Inquest Report on Mary Coombs

Inquest on a Child

Inquest held by Mr. George Sylvester at Mere on Monday on Mary Coombs aged 1½ years, who was so severely burnt, her clothes being ignited by the fire, having been left for two minutes by her mother who was gone to fetch some water, as to cause death in a few days.

Verdict: "Accidental Death."

Salisbury and Winchester Journal, 13 November 1847

