

Henry Fielding 1707-1754

In his early years whilst he was studying at Eton College he would spend his vacations with his Grandmother. She lived in St. Martins Church Street, Milford. He also continued visiting the city from time to time after that as well.

He had a very strong connection with Salisbury. His paternal grandfather was an archdeacon of Salisbury.

His wife Charlotte Craddock was a Salisbury beauty.

His father's third wife Eleanor Hill was a wealthy widow of Salisbury.
