

Milton Lilbourne

1850-1899

1851

On the 18th inst., at Milton Lilbourne, by the Rev. J. H. Gale, J. Baker, Esq., surgeon, Collingbourne, to Mrs. Newman of the former place. Salisbury and Winchester Journal, 22 February 1851

This morning at Seend, the Rev. J. H. Gale, vicar of Milton Lilbourne, in this county, to Augusta, second daughter of William Heald Ludlow Bruges, Esq, of Seend. Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette, Thursday, 31 July 1851

1855

On February 1st, at Little Ann, George Rawlings, the oldest parishioner of the parish of Milton Lilbourne, Aged 92. Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette, Thursday, 8 February 1855

1856

On the 29th inst. at Seend, by the Rev. J. H. Gale, Vicar of Milton Lilbourne, Wilts., John Hungerford, Eldest son of Captain Penruddocke, Scots Fusilier Guards, Winkton, Hants., to Elizabeth Heathcote, eldest daughter of the late W. H. Ludlow Bruges, Esq., of Seend, Wilts. Salisbury and Winchester Journal, Saturday, 31st May 1856 also Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette, Thursday, 5 June 1856

1876

April 15 at St. Saviour's Church, Bath, by the Rev. James Borbridge Doyle, curate, Oliver Kimber only son of Charles Kimber, esq, of Havering House, Milton, Wilts. to Tamar Howes third daughter of Mr. Thomas Howes late of Thornham Farm, Seend, Wilts. Bristol Mercury, Saturday, 22 April 1876

1879

November 6th at Durban, by the Rev. J. Cowley, Frederick John Alexander, of the Legislative Council Office, Maritzburg, eldest son of the late John Alexander, of Milton & Pewsey, Wilts, to Lucretia Adara Justine, eldest daughter of William A. Austin, C.E., of Ottawa, Canada. North Wilts Herald, 6 January 1879

1888

At sea, May 22nd, on board H.M.S. Thalia, William Henry Ludlow Gale, Lieutenant R.N., aged 33, eldest son of John Henry and Augusta Gale, of Milton, near Pewsey. Buried at sea on May 23rd.
Marlborough Times, 30 June 1888

1893

On the 30th January at Milton Vicarage, Pewsey, The Rev. John Henry Gale, for 47 years Vicar of the parish, aged 72. No flowers, by special request. Marlborough Times, 4 February 1893