

Milton Lilbourne

Interesting Entries From the Parish Registers

1686

The earliest Register Book begins A.D. 1686, and is in Latin

1694

2 August - Lady How died in early life, s. p. [Marriages]

1704

4 July - The baptism of this William is not in the Register. There was a William entered in 1703, but erased again with the pen [Baptisms]

1715-1716

13 January - First, of Henry Stratford, Esq. of Hawling. Co. Glouc. (by whom she was mother of Elizabeth Stratford, married 1694 to Sir James Howe, Bart.; and of Henrietta Stratford, married to William Wyndham, esq.): and widow, secondly, of Edmund Hungerford, esq. of Fifield, in Milton (bur. 1713), by whom she was the mother of Henry Hungerford (bur. 1750) and Anthony (bapt. 1691) [Burials]

1717

The second Register at Milton Lislebon commences A.D. 1717. On the fly-leaf is listed a memorandum giving details of the incumbents of Milton Lilborne.
{OPC Note - The list has been used to create a list of incumbents and published on the parish page}

1733

September 3rd - Entry made in Latin - Ego Carolus Jay institutus et inductus eram in hanc vicariam. (Translates as:- Charles Jay installed and inducted as vicar). He had been curate for some years previous

1739

The third Register commences A.D. 1739

1750

12 December - Of Fifield; son of Edmund H. (bur. 1713): he married the Hon. Eliz. Seymour and left Fifield estate to her for life; remainder to William Wyndham, esq.; remainder to Charles Penruddocke, esq., who married, 1769, Anne Henrietta Wyndham, granddaughter of William Wyndham, and daughter and heiress of Wadham Wyndham, esq. (bur. 1768) [Burials]

1756

26 April - Of Henry Hungerford, esq. third daughter of Sir Edward Seymour, Bart. of Maiden Bradley, Wilts (of the elder house of Seymour), and sister of Sir Edw. Seymour who became Duke of Somerset in 1749, on the death of Algernon the 7th Duke without issue male surviving: she died at Marlborough 5 April. [Burials]

1768

11 October - See Pedigree of Wyndham in Hoare's South Wiltshire, Dunworth Hundred, page 108 [Burials]

1769

30 April - This Henry was Vicar of Bromham [Baptisms]

1775

2 March - She was born in 1683, the eldest sister of Sir Michael Foster, one of the Judges of the Court of the King's Bench. Her second husband was the Rev. William Jones, by who she had no issue. [Burials]

1782

14 October - Mr. Ewen was steward to Algernon Duke of Somerset, the Duchess Dowager of Somerset, Hugh Duke of Northumberland, the celebrated Marquess of Granby, The Earl of Egremont, Lord Guernsey, and Sir Michael Foster, for their respective estates in Wiltshire and the West of England. He was married 6 December, 1774 at Alton Prior's co. Wilts, to Priscilla, second daughter and coheir of John Smith, esq. of Alton, and died s. p. He was in the commission of the peace for Wiltshire. [Burials]

1793

10 September - Mr. Mackay was Curate of Milton Lilborne. In 1799 he became Rector of Coates near Cirencester, and, retaining that living to his decease, he died at Southampton, Nov. 25, 1847, aged 77. Three of his children were baptised here; Mary, 16 June, 1796; Susanna, 17 April, 1798; and William-Henry, 16 Oct. 1799. [Marriages]

1817

13 January - Son of Charles Penruddocke and A. H. Wyndham, and brother of the ladies below mentioned. [Burials]

1836

14 February - Whose surviving sister, Letitia Penruddocke, died at Fifield House, in this parish, 2 July, 1851. They were the daughters of the late Charles Penruddock, esq. of Compton Chamberlain and Fifield, M.P. for Wilts; and sisters of the late John Hungerford Penruddocke of Compton Chamberlain, esq. M.P. See the pedigree of Penruddocke in Hoare's South Wiltshire, Dunworth Hundred, page 81. [Burials]