

Coroner's Inquest Report

Minety

Mary Hicks

An inquest was taken by Mr Whitmarsh, at Minety, on view of the body of Mary Hicks, an aged woman. Deceased had got up about five o'clock in the morning, and appeared as well as usual, when her brother went off to work. Between six and seven o'clock the same morning, on his return he found the door of his cottage fastened, and found his sister lying dead on her bed.

Verdict, "Visitation of God."

Salisbury and Winchester Journal 16 December 1843