Minety

MINETY (or Minty) is an agricultural parish, and railway station on the Cheltenham railway, in the Northern division of the county, hundred of Cricklade, Malmesbury petty sessional division, county court district and union, diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, archdeaconry of Bristol, and rural deanery of Malmesbury North. With the exception of a small portion in Wiltshire, it was formerly in Gloucester; it is now entirely in Wiltshire; 85 miles from London, 8 north-east from Swindon, 8 south from Cirencester, and 7 north-east from Malmesbury.

The church of St Leonard is a venerable structure in the Perpendicular style; has square tower, nave, south aisle, and chancel. The pulpit and reading desk are elaborately carved. There is an organ by Bryceson.

The register dates from 1663. The living is a vicarage, value £290 per annum, and held by the Rev John Edwards, M.A., of St John's College, Cambridge. There is a rectorial tithe, amounting to about £250 nett value per annum, which has been made over by the Ecclesiastical Commissioners to the Dean and Chapter of Gloucester; the rectorial glebe has been sold to W T K Perry-Keene, Esq, to whom it was previously leased for a term of years.

A National School has been erected, supported by grants and voluntary contributions.

W T K Perry-Keene Esq, resides at Minety House and Mrs Fitzgerald at Braydon House.

The charities amount to £40 per annum, distributed in money at Christmas.

Captain Arthur Mullings is lord of the manor. The principal landowner is W T K Perry-Keene Esq.

The soil is clay and flint. The chief crops are grass. The area is 3,492 acres; and the population in 1861 was 812.
