

Post Office Directory Extract 1849

Minety

MINETY is a large agricultural parish, 8 miles south from Cirencester, and 5½ miles north-east from Malmesbury, in the Hundred of Cricklade, and diocese of Gloucester and Bristol.

The living is a vicarage, in the patronage of the Archdeacon of Wilts, value £340 per annum. There is a rectorial tithe and glebe, amounting to about £450 per annum, at present leased for a term of years, the reversion of the property being in the hands of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners. The Rev Frederick Edward Tuson, M.A., is the present incumbent.

The church is a venerable structure, in the early style of English architecture, has square tower, nave, south aisle and chancel. The pulpit and reading desk are elaborately carved.

A National school has been lately erected, supported by grants from the society and voluntary contributions.

W T K Perry Keene, Esq, of Minety House, and Mrs Keene of Braydon House, have residences here.

The population in 1841 was 736; the area in acres, 3,492; rateable value, £4,657.

Joseph R Mullins, Esq, is lord of the manor.

The charities amount to £40 per annum, for the benefit of the poor.

Minety is a station on the Cheltenham and Great Western Railway.

Letters are received through the Cirencester office.
