WILTSHIRE PROPERTIES SOLD

At the Assembly Room, King's Head Hotel, on Monday evening, Mr C F Moore faced a numerous company on the occasion of offering landed property.

The first holdings were three farms, the property of Mrs Brewin, at Minety. Swillbrook, extending to 90 acres of pasture with farmhouse, was started at £2,000, and fell to the bid of Mr A Y Brown, at £2,900. Cockroad Farm, 51 acres of pasture, with house, was put in at £1,100, and was withdrawn at £1,750. Cowleaze Farm, 22 acres of pasture, with homestead, met an opening bid of £700, and became Mr J Reynolds' at £1,125. The first purchase included timber; and on lots 2 and 3 the sums of £68 and £35 had to be paid. Mr E B Haygarth was the vendor's solicitor.

The next property, also at Minety, came into the market by order of the trustees of the late Mr Edwin Cook, and comprised 223 acres in two farms. Together, they met no demand. Sterte Farm, 155 acres, of which 130 was pasture, was then submitted. Of this, Mr Moore said his late partner sold it in 1871 to the late proprietor for £6,400; and now there was some hesitating about the opening bid of £2,000. Increases of fifty slowly carried the figure to £3,000, and was then sold to Mr A Reed. Little Swillbrook, 67 acres of pasture, was set going at £1,600, and at £2,450 it went to Mr H Miles. Messrs Paul and Kitcat were for the vendors.
