

Wedding Celebrations

Minety

Dorothy Irene Taylor & Alexander John Scott

On Thursday afternoon Miss Dorothy Irene Taylor, fourth daughter of Mr and Mrs E E Taylor, Minety, was married at Minety Church to Mr Alexander John Scott, youngest son of the late Mr and Mrs James Scott, of Castle Douglas, Scotland.

The Rev W P A Sole, rector of Crudwell, officiated.

The bride had been on the teaching staff of St Leonard's School, Minety, and is well known in local musical circles. She is a member of Minety Parish Church choir and also of the Women's Institute and the Minety Players.

The service was choral. Mr S W Underwood (Stroud) was the organist.

Given away by her father, the bride wore a brown velvet dress with hat to match. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Miss Emily Higgs, the bridesmaid, was gowned in a brown fawn and brick-coloured dress, with a brick-coloured hat. Mr Raymond Harry Taylor (brother of the bride) was the best man.

After the reception, Mr and Mrs Scott left for London, the bride travelling in a brick-coloured dress, and short fur coat.

The many presents included those from the church choir, schoolchildren, and the Women's Institute.
