Revs. M. Potts and P. Mann, assistant-curates at Gillingham, are leaving the town this week to take up new appointments. Mr. Mann is to have charge of Netheravon with Fittleton for the period of the war, while the incumbent is serving as a chaplain. Mr. Mann, too, had done excellent work at Gillingham and district, especially with the Scouts and Sunday School. Western Gazette, Friday, 13 October 1939
