

Crime Reports

Netherhampton

1750-1799

1787

On Friday, John Gray, late of Netherhampton, near this city was committed to Fisherton Gaol, for having obtained from Messrs. Husey and Loder, linen drapers, three yards and a half of printed cotton, value 7s. under false pretenses, with intent to defraud. Salisbury and Winchester Journal, 28 May 1787