

CORONERS INQUESTS

Netherhampton

Mary Heathfield

Mr. Whitmarsh held an inquest on Friday last at Netherhampton on the body of Mary Heathfield.

She was found that morning February 18th nearly exhausted in a meadow in the Parish. She was removed to a neighbouring cottage, where she shortly after expired. She was aged about 35 years old.

The verdict that was concluded was that it was a "Visitation of God"

Salisbury and Winchester Journal, 27 February 1832