

Robbery

During the first day of Salisbury Races last week the bedroom of Mr. James Young, the landlord of the Victoria and Albert Inn, was entered by thieves, by means of false keys, and a number of gold rings, bracelets, table spoons, silver tongs, and numerous other valuable articles in silver, gold and jewellery, were stolen therefrom. Strong suspicion attaches to some persons who were staying at the house during the races.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal, 23 May 1868