

Wilbury House and Grounds, 1813

Late John Clark, Bailiff in Husbandry

Notice.

All Persons with whom John Clark, late Bailiff in Husbandry to Sir Charles Warre Malet, of Wilbury House, in the county of Wilts, Baronet, hath contracted any debt on his said master's account, are desired to deliver the particulars thereof in writing to me, at the Black Horse Inn, Salisbury, either on the 14th or 21st of January instant, that the same may be examined, in order to an adjustment; and such persons as stand indebted to the said Sir Charles Warre Malet, by reason of any sale of Corn, Grain, Seed, or other articles made to them by the said late Bailiff, John Clark, are requested to pay their respective debts to me on the 21st instant, at the place aforesaid.- dated the 2nd of Jan. 1812.

John Bowle, Solicitor.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal 6 January 1812