

Crime Reports

*Southwick, North
Bradley
1800-1899*

1890

Charles Brewer, mason, was summoned by Samuel Groves for attempting to upset him while riding through Southwick on a tricycle, by putting a long pole in front of the steering wheel, and also threatening to strike him with the pole. Defendant did not appear, and was fined 20s., or fourteen days' imprisonment. The Western Gazette, Friday, 6 June 1890