Inquest Report on Rachel Matthews

Inquest held by George Sylvester, Esq.

At Southwick, on Mrs. Rachel Matthews, aged 55 years. The deceased was returning home from Trowbridge in a gig, which came in contact with a brewer's dray, by which means the horse was liberated from the shafts, which came to the road with considerable violence, throwing the deceased out on her head: from the injuries received she died in two days.

Verdict. - Accidental Death.
