

Nunton House

Nunton House News Reports 1700-1899

To be SOLD by AUCTION, on the Premises, by R. SMITH, on Wednesday the 15th of October next, and the following days. The neat HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE, fine old china, books, wines, exotics, and other green-house plants, melon frames, and garden articles, &c. of THOMAS BUCKNAL, Esq., deceased. The greater part nearly new. Catalogues will be delivered on Saturday the 11th of October, at Nunton House, and at R. Smith's Salisbury. Nunton is about three miles on the Downton Road from Salisbury. Salisbury and Winchester Journal, 22 September 1788; 6 October 1788; 13 October 1788

COUNTRY HOUSE To be Lett, and entered on immediately, at Nunton, a pleasant village, about three miles and a half from Salisbury. A modern built House, with a garden, orchard, coach-house, and stables, and every requisite convenience for a moderate sized gentleman's family. It is not calculated for a sportsman. For further particulars enquire of the Printer of this Paper. Salisbury and Winchester Journal, 13 October 1788.