

Crime and Punishment

Oaksey

Claims Court

Wyndham Faithfull v George Cox

Wyndham James Edwin Faithfull, clerk in Holy Orders, Oaksey, v George Cox, cartage agent.

Claim, £2 for breach of contract.

In October last plaintiff sent by Pickford, per GWR, a crate of poultry to Cowes, I W, and, in spite of his doubly-expressed wish, the empty crate got returned by the Midland and SWJ Railway some weeks later.

The Judge said there was no proof of agency or contract, and his verdict was for defendant, with costs.

Gloucester Chronicle Thursday 9 August 1906