

Oaksey

- 1808 Died Lately died, at Bath, at an advanced age, the Rev Ralph Smith, M.A. many years Rector of Oaksey, and Vicar of Netheravon, in this county.
Salisbury and Winchester Journal Monday 18 May 1808
- 1815 Died At Oaksey, in Wiltshire, on Monday, the 5th inst. in his 80th year, Mr Fozard, of Ecclestone street, Pimlico, formerly of Park Lane.
Salisbury and Winchester Journal Monday 1 May 1815
- 1823 Married On 12th June, inst. was married at Oaksey, Wilts, Thomas Hawkins, esq. of Oaksey Court to Miss Mary Pool.
Salisbury and Winchester Journal Monday 23 June 1823
- 1828 Died On the 1st inst. died, at the Vicarage, Adderbury, in this county, at the advanced age of 85 years, universally respected, Mrs Smith, relict of the Rev Ralph Smith, late Rector of Oaksey, in the county of Wilts.
Oxford Journal Saturday 24 May 1828
- 1828 Died July 4, at St Fagan's, near Cardiff, in his 78th year, Mr J Oatridge, late of Oaksey, Wilts, for 24 years resident agent on the estate of the Earl of Plymouth.
Worcester Journal Thursday 17 July 1828
- 1829 Died At Minchinhampton, Mrs Hitchens, third daughter of the late J Hawkins, esq, of Oaksey, Wilts
Bath Chronicle and Weekly Gazette Thursday 22 January 1829
- 1830 Died On the 6th inst. aged 33, after a few days' illness, Lucy, the wife of Mr E Hopkins, of Oaksey, and daughter of the late Leonard Hawkins, esq.
Bath Chronicle and Weekly Gazette Thursday 22 July 1830
- 1830 Died At Oaksey, near Cirencester, William Henderson, esq, aged 87.
Oxford Journal Saturday 28 August 1830
- 1831 Married At Purton, Maurice, eldest son of Wm Maskelyne, esq, of Oaksey Park, Wilts, to Sarah, only child of Matthew Vivash, esq, of Purton, in the same county.
Bristol Mercury Tuesday 29 March 1831

- Died On the 28th ult. at her residence in London, aged 83, Mrs Medley, only sister of Richard Holtham, esq, of Oaksey House, Wilts.
Gloucester Journal Saturday 4 February 1837
- Married Married, at Oaksey, in the county of Wilts, by the Rev Wm Maskelyne, Richard Kinnier, esq, M.D. of Cirencester, to Maria, youngest daughter of Wm Maskelyne of Oaksey Park.
Hampshire Advertiser Saturday 4 May 1839
- 1840 Died At Oaksey Park, aged 65, William Maskelyne, esq, respected by a large circle of friends, and deeply lamented by a large and affectionate family.
Bath Chronicle and Weekly Gazette Thursday 19 March 1840
- Died May 10, at Dr Kinneir's, Cirencester, to the inexpressible grief of her family, Mary Maskelyne, of 7 Park Villas, Cheltenham, second daughter of the late William Maskelyne, esq, of Oaksey Park, in the county of Wilts.
Cheltenham Looker-On Saturday 14 May 1842
- Married March 13, Mr John Hall, of Oaksey, to Miss Brown, of Minety.
Oxford Journal Saturday 25 March 1843
- Married April 27, at the parish church of Leckhampton, by the Rev William Maskelyne, rector of Crudwell, Francis William Lockhart Gordon, esq, of the Madras Army, to Sarah, eldest daughter of the late Wm Maskelyne, esq, of Oaksey Park, Wilts.
Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette Thursday 4 May 1843
- Married June 8th, at Crudwell, by the Rev W Maskelyne, T Bennion, eldest son of T Bagnole, esq, M.D. of Inshingham Hall, Cheshire, to Charlotte, second daughter of the late W Maskelyne, sq, of Oaksey Park, Wilts.
Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette Thursday 15 June 1843
- Married Sept 21, at Tetbury, by the Rev W Maskelyne, Rector of Crudwell, Charles William, youngest son of Robert Paul, esq, of Tetbury, to Anne, second surviving daughter of the late Wm Maskelyne, esq, of Oaksey Park, Wilts
Salisbury and Winchester Journal Saturday 28 September 1844
- Birth Feb 11, at Oaksey Park, Wilts, the lady of the Rev C Avery Moore, a daughter, which survived its birth a short time only.
Bath Chronicle and Western Gazette Thursday 18 February 1847