

CORONERS INQUESTS

Orcheston St. Mary 1800-1899

1894

A great sensation was caused on Saturday evening, by the suicide of James Gray, aged 33, lately employed as groom by Mr. F. Mills. At the inquest held on Monday, by Mr. R. A. Wilson (district coroner), a verdict was returned of "Suicide whilst temporarily insane." Salisbury Times, Friday, 3 Aug 1894
