

Overton

Parish Snippets 1588 - 1904

WAM xxxix p107	The provision of warlike furniture amongst the Clergie of the Diocese of Sarum besides the Bishop his owne (14 August 1588) Calivers - Mr Clifford of Overton.
Lady Constance Lucy of Overton	A note on the names of persons thought fit to lend money to the King by way of Privy Seal together with the dwelling place and their several sums (c1611). Lady Constance Lucy of Overton £30.
Richard Smith	Wiltshire Inquisitions Gent 11 April 1635 p 183.
WAM xlvii p 542	In Copies of Tenure the following field names occur, Ablas or Atlas Copse, and Down, Barrow Acre, Bum Furlong or Acre, Cattenbarrow Lane and Furlong, Cliffords Ground, Court Linch, Gibson, Gibstone or Gipson Furlong, Hackpennie (for Hackpen) Down, Hatchetts Gate Barrow and Field, Henley Road and Hedge, Paddle or Pattel Drove, Pickledean Down, Piked Stone Field, Pound Field, Priests Grove, Red Hill, Rylands, Stanley, Stitchingfield, Whiteway, Whiteslad, Vicars Bush.
WAM xl p177	Overton West Church. Font Buckler water col. 1807 vii 13 SE view [E End Chancel, Nave, S Porch, W Tower. Church rebuilt 1878] Buckler Water Col. 1807 iv 43.
WAM xl p133	Marlborough Times founded by Charles Perkins first appeared 24 Sept 1859 with the title of Marlborough Times and hungerford Weekly Advertiser circulating in the Marlborough, Hungerford, Lambourne, Ramsbury, Froxfield, Avebury, Overton, Great and Little Bedwin, Burbage, Collingbourne, Ogbourne, Pewsey and Swindon Vale.
WAM xxxiii p416	Edmund Rebbeck of Lockeridge died March 14 1904 aged 49. Buried at Overton. He weighed 31 stone 11 lb and was supposed to be the heaviest man in England. Long obit notice MT March 1904.

Source: West and East Overton. A Collection of Documents And Maps. Extracts with permission of Clive Dorling, who retains copyright.