Lockeridge Bride Wedding Report

WEDDING --- The marriage took place on Saturday at St. Michael's Church, Overton, between Ronald Edward, eldest son of Mrs. R. and the late Mr. R. MacRae, of 9 Selwyn Road, Walton-on-Thames, and Iris, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wells of Rhyls Cottages, Lockeridge. The service was conducted by the Rev. V. E. B. Norton (Vicar) and the organist was Miss F. Smith. The bride who was given away by her father, wore a white full length gown of satin beneath a gold embroidered over-dress of tulle. Her veil was held in place by a headdress of orange blossom and diamante. She carried a bouquet of red roses. The matron-of-honour was Mrs. E. Lavers (bride's sister) who wore an emerald green taffeta dress embroidered with gold studs and she carried a bouquet of ~~red~~ [this has been crossed through in ink and replaced] white carnations. The child attendant was three-year-old Corrine Lavers (bride's niece) who wore a white faille taffeta dress and carried a basket of mixed flowers. The duties of the best man were carried out by Mr. F. Lavers. A reception for 56 guests was held at the Scout Hut. Later the couple left for their honeymoon at Swanage, the bride travelling in a grey two-piece suit with champagne accessories. Among the numerous presents they received was a bedroom rug from the bride's employers at Messrs. Garrads, Marlborough. They will make their future home at Byfleet, Surrey
