

Pitton & Farley
1800-1849

1824

On Saturday the 4th inst. died, in the 66th year of his age, William. Gerrard, turner, of Pitton, in this county, greatly regretted by his family. For upwards of 35 years he was in the habit of walking (6 days in the week) from Pitton to Salisbury and back, making a distance of 10 miles per day. For the last 21 years of his life he was in the employ of Mr. Keynes, brush maker of this city, by whom he was much respected.
