Pitton and Farley 1800-1849

The Rev. Hugh Stephens, Vicar of Alderbury, Pitton and Farley, has given a benefaction of twenty guineas, to be distributed among the deserving and distressed inhabitants of the said villages, in addition to other helps, during the severities of the present most trying season. (Late heavy falls of snow...It has now lain on the ground three weeks... most of the public roads have been absolutely impassable...)
