

Church News snippets

Potterne

1770

Tuesday a dispensation passed the seal enable the Reverend John Hume, M.A. Nephew and Chaplain to Dr. Hume, Bishop of Salisbury, to hold the Vicarage of Bishops Lavington, together with the Vicarage of Pottern, both in Wilts, worth upwards of 250 l. Per Annum.

Oxford Journal, Oxford – 20 January 1770