Potterne

Honourable Service Record

Thirteen is not unusually regarded as a “lucky” number, but Mrs Sabina Miles, an aged widow living in Potterne, may certainly be proud of her thirteen relatives who are serving in his Majesties forces. Her son William Miles and grandsons, William Miles and William Hiscock, are in the Duke of Cornwall's Light Infantry.

Her grandsons Alfred Iles and Albert Underwood in H.M.S. Torch and H.M.S. Amethyst respectively.

Joe Underwood and Alfred Underwood, grandsons, Territorials and Red Cross.

F.C. Richen, grand-daughter's husband, Lancashire Fusiliers.

John Hinder, daughter's husband, Tom Rickett's son-in-law and Bert Hiscock, Grandson, 1st Wilts.

Ernest Miles, grandson, Territorials.

James Miles, grandson, Reservist.
