

Potterne - Thomas Tanner 1822

Salisbury Infirmary

We are happy to announce that Thomas Tanner, Esq., late of Potterne, in this county, has by a bequest in his Will given one hundred pounds to the Salisbury Infirmary.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal 23 September 1822

Notice to the Creditors and Debtors of the late THOS. TANNER, of Pottern, esq. deceased

A meeting of the Executors will be holden on Monday the 12th August next, at the Castle, Devizes, when all Persons who have any Claims or Demands on the Deceased's Effects, are requested to attend to receive the same, and to bring their Receipts duly stamped.

And all Persons indebted to the Effects of the Deceased, are then and there requested to pay the respective Debts they owe to the Effects of the Deceased.

22nd July 1822

Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette 25 July 1822

Buried at Potterne, 8 March 1822, aged 62 years