

Flight Lieutenant

Medlicott

Stephen

Royal Naval Air Service

Date of Death	26th April 1915
Place of Death
How Died	Killed whilst flying on active service. Drowned as a result of an accident to a seaplane
Birth Registration	22 May 1892 (Devizes 5a 112 June 1892)
Place of Birth	Potterne, Wiltshire
Residence	Sandfield, Potterne (1901)
Occupation
Father	Henry Edmonstone
Mother	Kate Doyly Gale
Siblings	Kate J., George G., Walter S., Henry E.
Marital Status
Where Buried	Haslar Royal Naval Cemetery, Gosport, Hampshire
Plot Location	Grave G. 5.10
Memorials	War Memorial, St Mary's churchyard, Church Corner, Potterne
Notes	Enrolment date: 15 June 1905 HMS Natal, Warrior class armoured cruiser, Assigned in WW1 to the Home Fleet, Second Cruiser Squadron. Stephen Medlicott, Midshipman, 15 March 1911 Seniority: 30 April 1913 HMS Attack, Torpedo Boat Destroyer, Sub-Lieut. 13 May 1914 Seniority: 4 December 1914 Royal Flying Corps 1915 Killed whilst flying Sopwith 860 Seaplane 928, Royal Naval Air Service
Medals	Victory, British, Delhi Durbar Medal (1912), 14-15 Star