

Gun-Shot Accident

Accident

On Wednesday, a young man, named John Brock, was admitted into Salisbury Infirmary with a gun-shot wound on the left knee. It appears that he was attempting to round the handle of the pistol, and, not knowing that it was loaded, pulled up on the trigger, when the pistol went off.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal, 29 December 1866