

Employment & Business News

Salisbury 1800-1899

1835

The Lord Bishop of Salisbury has been pleased to appoint Mr. Richard Munkhouse Wilson, of this city, his Coroner for the City and Close, in the place of James Cobb, Esq., who has resigned. Salisbury and Winchester Journal, Monday, 12 October 1835

1872

BANK HOLIDAY. Thursday, the 26th of December, being one of the days fixed by statute for the suspension of business at all banks throughout the country, will be observed in this city as a general holiday. Salisbury and Winchester Journal and General Advertiser, 21 December 1872

CHRISTMAS CHEER. The shops of the butchers and pork-dealers in the city are well supplied with prime meat; and the poulterers and game sellers have also catered well for the wants of the public at the forthcoming festive season. Salisbury and Winchester Journal and General Advertiser, 21 December 1872