

Coat of Arms of the Mayor of Salisbury

Tuesday

T. W. Dyke. Esq., mayor, attended by the Sergeants, Beadles, and Peace Officers, destroyed in a public manner, in front of the Council Chamber, Salisbury, upwards of 600 pots and cups, and at least 59 gallon, half-gallon, and quart measures, which in his late visits to the public-houses and markets he had found deficient

Bath Chronicle and Weekly Gazette, 22 November 1821