

Mayor Opens Campaign

The Mayor of Salisbury (Clr. S. A. Vokes) opened the first of a series of coffee mornings organised by the Salisbury committee of the Freedom from Hunger Campaign at 51, New Canal, Salisbury, on Saturday. Others will be held every Tuesday and Saturday.

The fine display of produce and flowers on show was a gift from the South Wilts Grammar School for Girls; the room has been given attractive murals by Mr. G. Acorn, of the Salisbury School of Arts and Crafts.

In his opening remarks the Mayor said: "This campaign's object is to teach the people of the world how to fend for themselves in order to prevent famines."

Mr. E. S. Davis (chairman of the Salisbury committee) introduced and thanked the Mayor

Salisbury Journal, 12th October 1962

OPC Note:

The original article has a photograph included however this was of too poor a quality to reproduce for this item.