

The Former Assembly Rooms, Salisbury

The Annual MUSICAL FESTIVAL AT SALISBURY

Will be celebrated on the thirtieth Day of September Inst. and the first day of October following.

At the Assembly Room, on the first day, will be performed an Oratio, called, THE TRIUMPH OF TIME AND TRUTH, composed by Mr. HANDEL, and never before performed in the Country. And on the second day, the celebrated hymn in Milton's Paradise lost; and

A Pastoral called DAPHNIS and AMARYLLIS, both adapted to music of the greatest Italian Composers, JOMELLI, PERGOLESE, GALUPPI, and others; with the additional songs and choruses, as at the last performance.

In the Cathedral Church will be A TE DEUM and JUBILATE. The Music from the best church composers of Italy; and two Antheins by the same, and one by Mr. Handel.

The Principal Vocal Parrs by Signor TENDUCCI, Messrs. NORRIS, HIGGINS and CORFE. The Instrumental parts by the best performers from Bath and Oxford.

A Concerto on the Organ each night by Mr. Higgins.

A BALL each night, as usual.

The Salisbury Journal, 20 September 1762