

VINE INN, SALISBURY

May 1, 1780

JOSHUA GIBBONS, (Oxford Carrier) having taken and entered on the above Inn, and laid in a fresh assortment of the best WINES and LIQUORS, humbly solicits the patronage of his friends, and an indulgent public, which will confer a lasting obligation on their obedient humble servant, J. GIBBONS.

N.B. His CARAVAN goes from the Vine every Tuesday morning at six o'clock, gets to Oxford Wednesday noon, and returns to Sarum Friday.

Salisbury & Winchester Journal, 3 July 1780