

People News

Salisbury

1700-1799

1780

Wednesday evening some foreigners of distinction slept at the Three Lions, in this city, and went from thence on Thursday to visit Lord Pembroke's, Stonehenge, &c. In one of the gentlemen's beds was found, in the morning, a purse containing upwards of 100 guineas, which the landlord immediately sent after the gentlemen to Stonehenge. Salisbury & Winchester Journal, 3 July 1780