

The Salisbury Rifle Corps at The Cathedral

On Sunday morning the members of the First Wilts Rifle Volunteers, to the number of about 90, assembled in the Market Place, and, headed by the band of the corps, marched to the Cathedral, where an admirable, appropriate, and impressive sermon was preached by their chaplains, the Rev. Prebendary Swayne. The service being over, the volunteers marched back to the Market Place, where they were dismissed by Captain Pinckney.
