

Castle Street, Salisbury

SALISBURY

To be LETT, a very good DWELLING-HOUSE, situate in Castle Street, in that large and commodious Court known by the name of Webb's Court, near to the Market Place; consisting of a large spacious kitchen, a large square parlour, two chambers over, of the same dimensions, and very good garrets,

Also two Stables, of two stalls each, with brick'd floors, and good hay-lofts over.

Enquire of Mr. Fletcher, of Salisbury; of the stable-keeper, who lives in the court.

Salisbury & Winchester Journal, 3 July 1780